InnoTrans 2016: Ansaldo STS brings its most innovative solutions to Berlin

With a dedicated stand of 800 sqm on two floors, Ansaldo STS is exhibiting this year at InnoTrans, the world's leading trade fair of the railway sector, opening in Berlin on 20 September with 300 thousand square meters of exhibition, 3000 metres of rails and more than 2500 exhibitors.

Andy Barr, CEO and General Manager of Ansaldo STS said: "I am convinced that Ansaldo STS has its highest-ever visibility this year, in what I believe to be the largest industry event worldwide, thanks to the efforts of all our colleagues and to the innovative solutions developed by our team."

Ansaldo STS displays - exhibiting together with the other Hitachi Rail companies and thanks to sophisticated simulators and the support of technical experts available to visitors - its innovative products and technologies, such as its satellite solutions, that are becoming even more advanced and sustainable. Ansaldo STS also showcases its efficient capabilities in the areas of turnkey and driverless metro projects, with a portfolio of global projects covering more than 270 km of lines, operations and maintenance contracts.

Andy Barr added: "Ansaldo STS wants to confirm and strengthen its presence and its image in the market, bringing to Berlin, along with the quality of the whole Hitachi Group, its own history and experience. We all strongly feel this responsibility and have committed with the aim that the hard work of preparation and the collaboration with Hitachi enables us to present ourselves to the market as a strong, sustainable, innovative and even more compact company".
